NAP CAUSED AUTO SMASH

Earl R. Fothergill, Pine Street, and Gardner Goodwin, both of South Paris, were cut and bruised when their Durant sedan plunged into a large boulder near the camp ground below Norway village. Fothergill, who was driving, dozed a few seconds and the crash followed.

The boys were returning about 1:15 a. m., from a visit in Poland and driving less than thirty miles an hour because of fog. Goodwin was asleep and curled up on the front seat so escaped a shower of glass from the windshield. The driver said he closed his eyes a moment to relieve the strain and the next thing was the rude awakening in a wrecked car by the roadside.

Ralph Lincoitt, who lives near, was awakened by the crash and started the car to take the boys to the hospital. Fothergill suffered a cut near the left elbow from a broken window, and was shaken up. Goodwin had bruises and a good deal of soreness. The car was badly damaged and hauled to South Paris.

NORTH BRIDGTON

Card Party—Guests Visited Kiwanis Club—Much Anticipated Picnic Enjoyed.

Each year the guests at Wilbur's strive to do something for the town library. In past years, concerts, musical sales and baseball games have been the means of raising funds to buy books. This time a community card party was the elected method. Mrs. Snyder started the movement early in the season and enlisted the help of Mrs. Harry Moller. Shortly things were under way and the card party assumed definite shape. Mrs. Snyder gathered armloads of flowers and spent much time in arranging corsages and old fashioned nosegays, which were to be prizes.

Mrs. Moller and Mrs. Odennat canvassed the town for subscriptions and were very successful. They were ably assisted by Mrs. Creasey of Princeton, N. J. Mrs. French of Long Lake Lodge marshalled her colony in force to the festivities. The door prizes were a "hobnob" glass confectionery and a "hobnob" glass pitcher, donated by Mr. H. H. Hiner of Philadelphia and Dr. H. W. Woodard, also of Philadelphia. There were sufficient table prizes to present to the winners of each table. Refreshments were sold by "Bud" Lawrence of Philadelphia, and Master Robert Weston of North Bridgton.

These parties are our expression, in a small way indeed, of the love we feel for Mrs. Wilbur, who has been more than a hostess to all. We feel that it behooves us all to hold up her hands in the forward movement for town progress.

Among the townspeople who lent their presence and support were Miss Ida Marsh, who entertained the Misses Hone and Miss Van Flech of New York; Mr. Bartlett, who entertained a party of three from Portland. The door prizes were a set of dishes and a set of silverware, donated by Mr. and Mrs. Long Lake Lodge. A sufficient sum was realized to aid the winter work of the town library.

On Thursday, Dr. Rosi of Brooklyn, an enthusiastic Kiwanian, covered the next day's meeting of the meeting of the South Paris Kiwanis. They were Mr. Shinder and Dr. W. Burrill Odennat of Philadelphia, Dr. Wilson of New York and Harry Allen of Portland.

They were vitally interested in this enthusiastic body of Kiwanians and much appreciated the spiritual and material hospitality afforded. Albert Bartlett showed films of India and a guest from New York entertained at the piano with selections from Wagner's "Trestan and Isolde" and a Sonata by MacDowell.

The evening was a social one, with a fraternal, Dr. Stewart, of South Paris, who had been to Philadelphia as a delegate to the convention of the American Medical Association, was glad to shake the hand of a study colleague, who does honor to his calling and who so ably represents his fellow medical men in national medical affairs.
